“ I still cant believe she's gone! I had the pleasure of knowing her since high school. She was always happy and talking about God. The last time I saw her was at Red Robin, where she was working. When I heard of her passing,I couldn't believe it! Many questions ran thru my mind but I knew the most important question and the answer! Tasha knew and loved the Lord and He has called one of his precious angels home!She kept such a beautiful smile! R.I.P.Tasha!

“ To The Hinkle Family: Tasha was very dear to me. I first met her when she worked in Art Van Furniture and soon after she became a client of mine. I enjoyed talking and laughing with her. I recognized her illness shortly after taking her on as a client, but i learned to allow her to share in conversation with me just as i would any other client. The last time i saw her was at Ebenezer when she song in the choir. I could tell for some months that her illness was worst, but was glad to see that she was still in church. I didnt know of her passing until yesterday(4/14/2010)when another client told me. Assuming i knew. It was and still is a shock. She was so young and so intelligent and very spiritual. And i always told her how beautiful she was. ..Tasha you will truly be missed!

“ We would like to express our deepest sorry for your loss. This young child life is so impressive. As I read about her. I could help to think about the scriptures in the Bible. Proverbs 22:1 about, A name is to be chosen rather than adundant riches: Ecclesiastes 7:1A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than day of one's being born. Jesus spoke of ones like her in the Bible at John chaper 5 verses 28, 29. "all those in the GRAVES will hear my voice and come out". John 11 chap. verse 11 he said" I am the resurrection the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life. Revelation chap. 22 verses 1-5 show God's Kindgom rule here on the earth. Yes that kingdom Christ taught us to pray for in Matthew. These scriptures and others about the resurrection hope in the Bible has helped my family cope with death; as you know it is not the natural orders of things by the Creator. Again we are so sorry.
