“ Tavalles and I worked together years ago at McDonalds and recently ran into each other again and became close freinds. He was a great guy and put a smile on me and my childrens faces every time we visited. I will always remember him at the Holy Redeemer festival playin catch with my little girl and him puttin up a tent in my backyard. That is just a couple of the recent great memories we will have. We will really miss your smile and friendship. My condolences go out to all his friends and family. God bless you Tavalles and family!!

Your mother's teaching is like a light.
And the training that corrects you leads to life.*

Tie them around you neck.
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
