and Branbell Carnes; niece, Quinarah Malloy; nephews, Jalil Malloy and Jacoby Malloy; uncle, Sandy Malloy (Carolyn) of Flint; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends including special friends, Esther Nichols and Gwendolyn Boyd.

Mr. Lilly was preceded in death by his mother, Diane Yearby; grandmother, Emma Flippen; great-aunts, Elizabeth Malloy and Mary Langley; and great-uncle, John Malloy.

The family would like to express special thanks to McLaren-ACU.

*****At Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, we value the safety and health of our customers, staff and the general public. Therefore, we will adhere to EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 2020-11 issued by our Governor Gretchen Whitmer, regarding assemblages in the wake of the unprecedented health challenge our state and nation is facing. The Executive Order is as follows:

Acting under the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, I order the following:

1. Beginning on March 17, 2020 at 9:00 am, and continuing through April 5, 2020 at 5:00 pm, all assemblages of more than 50 people in a single indoor shared space and all events of more than 50 people are prohibited in this state. A single indoor shared space includes but is not limited to a room, hall, cafeteria, auditorium, theater, or gallery. The prohibition on assemblages set forth in this section does not apply to:

The prohibition set forth in this section does not abridge protections guaranteed by the state or federal constitution under these emergency circumstances.

We do understand that this may pose a challenge to you and your family, but our dedicated staff is here to help guide you towards making the best decisions in memorializing your loved one.*****

Terrence was a member of Perfecting Church in Detroit (Bishop Marvin Winans)and a faithful member of the Joyful Noise Choir .. Eventhough he lived in Flint Terrence would be at rehearsal before those who lived in Detroit😎...His warm and friendly presence will truly be missed in the Joyful Noise Choir🎵
Good night Terrence and we will see you in the Morning🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏
