“ Wow. I am thrown by this news that Terri has passed. She helped train me when I started at D&N Bank. Then, we worked together at the Kessel's branch. She was dedicated to service and to excellence. She loved her daughters and granddaughter soooo much! I am praying for you all that God will comfort you. - Dallas Lenear

“ I meet Terri a long time ago...We both grew up on Hilton Lane and shared lots of memories as children and into young adults. As our lives took us into different directions our families remained linked. Terri is in God's tender care now and I know that the Sanders family are all sharing the memories of her life....Terri you were all of our Big Sister and we will never forget you and what you meant to us as children and adults. Love you and we will see you when God gathers His Children and takes us all home where we will never have to say good bye again.

“ For my friend Terri: I will always remember your smile, your laugh, the way you walked and our talks. I will forever remember “Our girl's night out or should I say “in” on Friday's back in the day which included both of us + me”.... Seems like whenever we ran into each other, we would leave with a hugs & words expressing a need to get together one more time! I guess my heart aches more for that reason-“that one more time” turned out to be the last time... You will forever be in my heart! To the family, my prayers are with each of you.

“ Terri, you will be missed so very much. No one forgets a 23 year friendship. Our prayer is that God will help us to deal better with our loss, because in honesty you are with God (probably auditing his finances) with no more pain. Our tears are for ourselves because we no longer have you. We will miss that beautiful smile and laugh. I have shared many personal things with Terri and I have been burdened and you listened and made suggestions that always seemed just right. Nicole, stay strong just like your Mother wanted you to. God and your Mother are just a prayer away. Proverbs 31:28 "and her children shall rise up and call her blessed.

“ Terri, you have a heart made of gold and you shared the gift of love with everyone you knew. I will miss your bright smile and pleasant personality.

I so admire, the friendship you have with your daughters and Elaine.

People come into our lives for a reason.

Heavenly Father;

I pray that you will reach down and touch this family, Right Now Lord.

Let your presence fill the home of Terri's daughters. Let them feel an extra portion of your strength that will help them through the hard days to come.

They need you now, Lord,

O Lord, we call upon You in our time of sorrow,

That, You give us the strength and will to bear our heavy burdens, until we can again feel the warmth and love of Your divine compassion. Be mindful of us and have mercy on us while we struggle to comprehend life's hardships.

The Lord Taketh and He gives us so Very Much.

This I ask in the name of your Dear Son Jesus.

Showers of Blessings

“ Although I did not know your loved one personally, I would just like to express my condolences to your family. Death is something that we as humans never get used to. As someone who has lost somebody close to me in death as well, I find the Bible's promise of a resurrection to be of great comfort. Isaiah 26:19 tells us that our "dead ones will live" and Revelation 21:4 promises that God will wipe all tears from our eyes and death will be no more. I hope that these scriptures will bring you and your family some comfort.

“ I am a very lucky person to have you in my life. You were always someone I could go to with a question, advice or most importantly a laugh. You always would have great words of wisdom and the best watches ever. I will forever miss our Tuesday mornings; meetings will never be the same. My days will always be "Peachy" my friend because you have helped them be that way. ~Cyndi Vespa
