“ I had no idea. I haven't seen Teyana since my teaching days at DuKette, but she made such an impression with that vibrant smile and strong opinion. My heart is hurt at this unexpected news. I wish I had better words of comfort.

Mike Ombry - June 03, 2022 at 06:41 AM

“ She was my fellow parent. Her youngest children have attended school with my daughter since elementary. I've always seen her in passing at their schools. I'll always remember her beautiful radiant smile. She took very good care of her children. My daughter spoke of her on numerous occasions. She welcomed my daughter into their home, allowed her to visit her place of business, dropped her off after an outing and waited with her until we arrived before. I appreciate and will never forget her kind deeds. Our most deepest condolences to her Family & Loved Ones.

“ I am so sorry for this loss!!! Miss. Tee as my babygirl Madison and I would call her, was a Very Gentle, Sweet, Loving and Caring Soul. I remember when Honey Bee's first opened up and had not gone to the 24hr schedule yet, I was a bartender and going to dental assistant school and some day's I had to work later than Honey Bee's stayed open and Miss. Tiana Offered to take my Maddie home with her until I got off of work so that I could finish my shift. I had Never received that kind of Selfless Love, Compassion or Care from someone that I had just met and also was just starting a business relationship with!!!! For this my Maddie and I are Forever Grateful and we still talk about her time at Honey Bee's, the Love and Care she received and being named Honey Bee's 1st baby lol, Thank you for Everything!!!! She was Truly Diamond and will be Greatly Missed!!!! Thank you for Sharing her with Us, rest in Paradise....JOB WELL DONE!!!!!!!

“ I was fortunate enough to teach Ms. Sprinkle’s youngest children. She always had a smile and such a kind disposition. When I needed childcare for my grandson, she was the only person that came to mind. Over the years, I had watched her take such good care of her children and others. So, I knew she would do the same for mine. Ms. Sprinkle will be missed, but heaven has another angel. Her mother, children, and grandchildren are in my prayers.
