“ My sympathy to the family of Mr. Theodore Lewis. Death isn't easy to go through alone at Phiiiipians:4;13 it encourages us to go to God in prayer and he gives us peace and the strength we need so we can endure.

“ You will always live in my heart Honey. You can finally rest and relax. No more Chemo, Dr's. Medicine, or work. Ted refused to slow down. Let him be known as a businessman who got things done NO MATTER WHAT. He never celebrated birthdays he believed that death was a homecoming. He was the hardest most determined man I've ever met. Stay strong and know he is with his mom. His main regret in life was that he didnt share his knowledge enough. He was so educated in so many things. As you remember him, remember what you've learned from his talks and his actions. That will make him proud.

Where was you at when it mattered? Huh? I'll wait. 🤔🤔🤔🤔

Sharda Johnson - February 10, 2016 at 08:34 AM

This coming from you....HAH! What I hate is that the ones who claimed their love for him was MIA. His real family was there til the END! 😡😡

I was so sorry to just learn of your passing. We grew up like brothers, hanging out on the basketball court where you would always use your "sky hook" on me. I am going to miss your voice and fabulous stories. I let too many years pass by without saying that I loved you as my brother. I look forward to seeing you in God's Paradise.
