“ *What a person of creative flair.
Her pen to the paper and thoughts that no one could compare.
Journeying through the haplessness of burdening overload.
Theoris extend joy and hope to those who were in that perplexing mode.
Theoris the one that could see beyond most peoples wavering needs
We thank GOD for your existance with our last plea... No more pain Lord ... No more pain whilst we know that her last breath was captured in loving arms of Jesus
Come home Theo he called, Come home and rest*

I am so glad I was able to say good bye. I will truly miss Theoris.

“ *Theoris, a very special friend, sister and mentor whom I had the pleasure of caring for to the end.
Have you ever wonder what calms you in the time of dispare. Did you pay attention to the loneliness the was no longer there. The mind that once ponder has now cease to wonder. A heart left with so much stain, has been lifted from it's pain. Have you ever wonder what calms you in the time of your dispare, A gentle whisper that was always there.*

“ For my dear friend, Theoris. In hope that her legacy of helping others will be carried on by those who knew her. She was a tireless advocate of the underprivileged, the disenfranchised, those in pain. May your memory and your spirit continue. My friend - my "sister" - "Keep Love Alive"

“ Theoris and I worked at the International Institute in the late 1970s (we even shared the same office). I can remember so many fond memories while working there. Theoris was an outstanding writer. As a matter of fact, she wrote the vows for my wedding, had the vows type-set and laminated them! She got me through the birth of my son and the death of my husband. Theoris was one of those people that when you met her, you had a friend for life. She was an extremely intelligent woman and probably had the best vocabulary of anyone I had ever met! Theoris was also talented in the Arts.

I'm shocked of the News, but am glad she returned home in her last days. May she rest in peace.
