“ My sister who has a smile that lights up a room. There just wasn't enough time to gather and share more memories. I will cherish our phone, text messages and will always think of you when I hear old school music. I always looked forward to Betty Bop good mornings, and you closing out the day on Facebook with old school jams. Thanks for welcoming me into your home and heart. You helped me and our other siblings navigate through some tough times, even while you were hurting. I end this like we ended all of our conversations, I love you and death doesn't change love. To your husband, children, grandchildren and Kevin Dupree, I send prayers from Florida. May you find strength as you hold to the memories.
