“ God Bless Entire Fleming Family with much love & many more blessings...God blessed you with such a kind, sharing & loving Mother. "Great-Aunt Thula" was a wonderful loving sister to my Grandmother "Mrs. Margaret 'Morgie' Ross" 😊. I can remember so many days as a child being over my Grandmother's house, answering the phone & hearing "Aunt Thula's" sweet voice asking for "Morgie". She's has always been so SWEET! I remember when Grandma died, Aunt Thula stopped on the porch & said rejoicingly, "Don't you shed a tear in sadness for your Grandma, if you cry let be tears of joy because she has left this WICKED AWFUL WORLD"! She said, "if I could go I would leave right now". So, I know she REJOICED all the way to heaven like a TRUE ANGEL indeed! 💕

God Bless,

“ To my cousins,
I am so sorry that Aunt Thula left this lifeglad that she is with Jesus in peace. She's seeing all her loved ones that went before her and rejoicing...but best of all she's walking the streets of gold, singing in the heavenly choir and sees the savior face to face. Oh what a time! Praying for you all.

“ I once was her beautician at the Former Quinney's Styling Salon in Beecher. I too remember Mrs. Fleming and often quote things that she told me; that helped me as a young woman. Such a sweet beautiful spirit, and she will be dearly remembered.

“ There are so many memories about my Mother in Law/ Mother you don't know where to begin but to say she was the sweetest woman in the world I remember times when Ma and I would talk on the phone for hours or sit on Her front porch and talk. She was a Loving Woman and made me feel more like a Daughter more than a Daughter in Law
