Timothy Jonathan Turner Sr., the son of Belton and Fannie Jackson Turner, was born on November 18, 1931 in Flint, Michigan. Tim was affectionately known by family and close friends as "TJ." TJ attended Flint Public Schools graduating from Northern High School in 1949. He furthered his education by attending Arkansas A&M and Mott Community College graduating with a degree in Nursing. TJ worked for AC-Delphi for his entire career where he was employed as an Occupational Industrial Nurse until his retirement. TJ had an affinity for sports. He was a gifted athlete and in his high school years, he excelled in football and track as part of a record setting relay 4x400 relay team and as a hurdler before going on to play college football at Arkansas A&M College. One of his favorite pastimes was attending Michigan football games in the Big House. TJ loved music from classical arias to James Brown and enjoyed spending time at jazz clubs and concerts. He passed his love of music and singing to his late son, Tim Jr. He enjoyed shopping and collecting, especially scavenging for antiques and other treasures. TJ loved the outdoors and nature; he was an avid hunter and fisherman and he continued to hunt well into his 80s. He looked forward to the annual deer hunting season with friends and family. He enjoyed many days fishing on his boat and teaching his grandchildren to fish. TJ also loved skiing which he picked up later in life and was dismayed when he had to stop. Timothy Jonathan Turner Sr. leaves to cherish his memory his son Jason Turner of Flint, MI; 4 daughters- Michelle (Charles) Robinson, Tamella Turner, Jean-Vierre (Jonathan) Adams and Keri Lynn Turner; grandchildren Chie (Gordon) Jones, Timothy Turner III, Angelique Turner, Akeem Cargile, Nandi Robinson, Jennifer Stevenson, Charles (Che) Robinson, Surya Adams, Khadijah El-Amin, Taylor Brown, Gabriel Philpots, Tiffany Tuner, Liberty Turner,; sisters Margo Turner and Cynthia (Robert) Russell, devoted and special niece Vickie George, along with a host of devoted great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. TJ was preceded in death by his parents Belton and Fannie Turner, brothers Hiawatha, Phillip and Lloyd, son Timothy J. Turner, Jr, and his daughter Nicole (Turner) Stevenson. The family would also like to thank Dr. Brent Williams, M.D., and the nursing staff at the University of Michigan Health Center as well as Mr. Eric Waller, Tammy and the rest of the staff at Laurel Heights, LLC for the care, love and comfort they provided to our father during his final days and hours. A very special thank you to our aunt Cynthia Russell for her devotion, care and companionship during his final hours.

“ To the Turner Family so sorry to hear of your father’s transition. Such a kind man and a truly good neighbor and lifelong friend. Whenever I needed Mr Tim to take care of a stray animal or problems around the yard there he was my neighbor hero. I will forever miss him sitting in his truck reading the paper, working around his yard and/or on his way fishing. Also, his stories about historical, political figures in his great family tree.
Much love to his family who are left behind to grieve at this time but the memories will soon make them smile. It may be that God has reserved a special fishing spot for Tim in Heaven.

“ I remember any time my cousins, The Walker Brothers, (“June”, John and CT) and my brother, Bill Rosborough, got together to talk about hunting and fishing, the name of TJ Turner always came up, and then the laughs and tall stories would begin.

I remember when I was in the first grade at Jefferson Elementary, TJ and my cousin “June” came to pick Nicole and I up after school. They took us to get ice cream. Those were good memories and they still make me smile.

My love to Michelle, Tammie, Jon and family. You are in my prayers.

“ My condolences to the family of “Tim” Turner. Tim was the last of a strong network of friends my father grew up with in Flint. He was part of the Thomas family and he and my father Wiley remained close friends until my father’s death in 2008. We have so many good memories from their generation which will carry us forward. R.I.P Tim and may God keep the family strong during this most difficult time.
