“ To the Family: It is certainly times like these, that we search the archives of the scriptures. Thus we understand the Divine Architect of the Universe indeed maketh no mistakes. And for Brother Tom Clark, we understand that his absence on this side of Life, merits being in the Presence of the Almighty Jesus Christ. May you draw strength from the God that doeth all things well.

Praise and Bless God.

“ What a wonderful spirit and personallity your Father was! Always pleasant words, genuine concern for others and a big smile. The Clarks and the Lumpkins have been neighbors for over 40 years-- the friendship, the loyalty and the love that developed will always be cherished. Our wonderful memories of Mr. Clark will bring warm smiles--he will be missed.
