“ I've known Mr. Brown since I was about 8 years old. I had great respect for him and he was always a kind person. He once made everybody leave his house except me. I kinda think he thought of me like another son. RIP

“ My sympathy to the family of Mr. Brown. The death of a loved one can cause difficult times that's not easy to get through, but through God and prayer I found that at (1 Thessalonians 4:13,14 you can find real hope and the strength to keep going and endure this difficult time.

“ Mr. Brown will forever be remembered, we will miss him dearly at the Barber Shop, and just seeing him taking his long walks around the neighborhood and the Flint area.

There isnt' to many seniors left in the area that you no by name but Mr. Brown always walked around smiling and pointing his finger and whatever his mind told him to point at.

We will miss all the stories about his sons, and is granddaughter that would always bring him to the Shop (she was always so patience) May Allah grant your father all the peace he so deserve
