“ Lol, My fondest memory of Tommy was in 1974 when I invited Joel Thompson and Tommy to my house for my first home cooked meal for friends without my parents help. Little did I know, all steaks are not the same. They bragged about how good the meal was. It was only when my parents came home that I realized that I fed my friends and sister T-bone cuts. In 1974 that would be considered a good meal for seniors in high school. When I think about that single event, I find myself laughing uncontrollably 50 years later. Thanks for other memories grand and small!:)
