“ Wow Tracy and Kim my heart goes out to you guys and the entire family. Tonya and I go all the way back to grade school. One memory of Tonya was when the Lennon Road Church of Christ Joy Bus use to come on Wednesday evenings and Sunday mornings Tonya use to pout and stump all the way to the back of the bus. Wirh her arms crossed. As we rode in neighborhood to pick up more kids Tonya sang and laughed. No matter what Tonya would eventually crack jokes and have the entire bus laughing. I will miss that laugh and infectious smile.. Rest easy babygirl. Heaven gained an angel.

“ To the family of Tonya Carpenter, I was really saddened to hear of her passing; I'm really going to miss “my girl.” I was always praying for her and when I didn't see her, I would always say to the Lord, “Lord, I haven't seen my girl lately; I pray she's alright.” Then the Lord would let our paths cross. People close to me, knew I called her “my girl” and when I got the call Tuesday night, they affectionately said, “your girl passed.” Oh Lord have mercy...
Family you all have my sincere prayers and condolences. May God bless you and give you peace, in Jesus name.
