Torina Andrea Benton was born May 12, 1969 in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Willie Carl Williams and Billie Lynn Wright. She accepted Christ at an early age and attended Mount Zion Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Williams. Torina also attended Flint Community Schools and Hair Force Academy Cosmetology School. She became employed working in her passion, which was caring and loving people as a Direct Care Worker. Torina later gained employment with General Motors Corporation and was a member of UAW Local #589 with 23 years of service. She was a devoted mother and grandmother. Torina always displayed a godly love for everyone that she knew. She enjoyed family, music, shopping and sitting by the water. Torina was very independent and had a smile that's bright as the sunshine.

Torina Andrea Benton leaves to cherish her memory: 2 daughters, LaToya
