“ To The Friends and Family of Tracey Harris: we pray that the memories of Tracey will continue to assist you in your daily walk that has to be continued until you see him again. This adjustment is never easy, however it is necessary so we will finally reach the Promise Land of No More Pain. Every second of every day matters and we must remember to enjoy every Blessing that God gives us because we never know when our last breath is a second away. Unfortunately, we won't be with you physically on this coming day of Celebration but as Family/Children of God, we are always with you in prayer, asking God to protect and provide as he keeps his promises to each of us from generation to generation. God makes no mistakes and he is never too busy, when we call upon his only begotten son, Jesus Christ he will answer time and time again. Love Always!!
