McCloud (Atkins) was born February 20, 1962 in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of James McCloud and Irene (Singleton) McCloud. She lived in Flint and attended Flint Northwestern High School where she actively participated on the volleyball and softball teams. Tracey graduated with honors in 1980. Later in life, she attended Ross Medial Education Center where she completed coursework to become a Dental Assistant. Tracey married Michael Atkins in 1984 and gave birth to Tané L. Atkins in 1985; the first of her three beautiful daughters. Tracey was a natural caregiver who work at nursing rehabilitation facilities until her love for children prompted her to begin a childcare and foster care home (Kiddy Klub House) where “her kids” lived in a creative and educational home environment. She cherished every child who entered her home and treated them as her own. Tracey worked diligently to improve her childcare business and remodeled her home to accommodate the growing needs of the children she cared for. Many parents and children became lifelong family friends.

Tracey also had a knack for making beautiful floral arrangements (Everlast Silk Flower Arrangements), Christmas wreaths and German Chocolate Cake. Tracey leaves to cherish her memory: mother, Irene (Singleton-McCloud) McKay (longtime companion, Theodis "Paw Paw" Thomas); 3 daughters, Tané L. (Kenneth) Dorsey of Columbus, OH, Anequa and Cierra Atkins, both of Flint; 2 grandsons, Kenneth Jr. and Kameron; 3 granddaughters, Kamari, Kennedy and Kamille; 2 sisters, Arianne McCloud of Texas and Dawn (AB) McCloud-Cole of Maryland; 4 brothers, Freddy McCloud of Sacramento, CA, Kenneth McCloud, Tyrone (Raquel) McCloud, all of Flint and Derrick (Ratonda) McCloud of Texas, 5 aunts; 4 uncles; many cousins and friends including very special caregiver cousins, Janice Muhammad and Reverend Emiece Bizzle; longtime special friends, TC, Terri, Rita, Shavonnah, Monica and Lynette.

Tracey was preceded in death by her father, James McCloud; grandparents; sister, Sharon McCloud-Brown; 3 aunts; and 3 uncles.

The family of Tracey would like to express special thanks to everyone who has been there with love and support either in person, phone calls and/or in prayer.
