“ I'm a resident of the building Tremayne lived in. I was just watching the funeral service scroll on ABC 12 today 10/23/25. I had no idea that he had passed :(I saw him out fixing his black truck last week. He was ALWAYS pleasant with me and took time to chat with me. Everytime he saw me he'd say, "How you doing young lady!?" I'm 65 and it made me feel young again (LOL). I would see him every now and then when I was doing laundry. He'd come in to get his daily Pepsi. I'm SO VERY sorry that he passed. I'm sure going to miss seeing Tremayne. He was unlike many of the residents. He was personable, fun, and upbeat. I had a feeling that if I needed anything, he'd help. This has been a hard year. This is the 5th person that I know of in my building who has passed this year. I'm so sorry I didn't get to say one last goodbye. Farewell my friend.

Tremayne was an upbeat guy. Every time I saw him, he was usually upbeat and he ALWAYS spoke to me. A lot of the people in the building are reserved and not very friendly. But he was a breath of fresh air. I would be doing laundry and he'd come get his 2 Pepsi's (LOL). This was hard to find out today. I'm extremely sorry for your loss. I'll miss seeing him around here at Kearsley. They should post it when people pass. Sometimes they do, but it's usually an obit afterwards.

DONNA WOULD RIDE IN THE BACK SEAT WITH ME; DONNA'S SISTER GLORIA WOULD RIDE IN THE FRONT WITH TREMAYNE TO GO TO NWHs. AS MY MOTHER ALWAYS TOLD ME, "YOUR SCHOOL DAYS ARE YOUR BEST DAYS."
