Master Tristen LaRon Crain was born July 17, 2012 in Flint, Michigan, the son of LaToya Crain. Tristen was affectionately known as "Bruiser". He attended Summerfield Elementary School and loved Ninja Turtles. Tristen acquired his wings on April 25, 2017 and went home to be with the Lord. "Bruiser" excelled at keeping his mom and sister, Chyna on their toes as he bolted away with a big smile on his face. He brought a lot of love and joy to his family.

Master Tristen LaRon Crain leaves to cherish his memory: mother, LaToya Crain (DeAndre Nolen); loving sister, Chyna Crain; grandparents, Cynthia Crain and Ronald Crain (Karen Utsey); great-grandparents, Gladys (Victor) Powell, Ulysses (Peggy) Lundy; aunts, LaTanya Lundy, Sharonna (Robert) Owen of Illinois, Rhonda (Clarence) Swearengen of Tennessee, Darla Pruitt, Patrica Lundy, Sherry (Earnest) Burke of Texas and Bobbi Bradshaw; uncle, Christopher (Sayvil) Crain; cousins, Eric Lundy, Jacarri Wilson, Ti'Aira Wilson, Jordan Lundy, Jayla Carter, Lynette Crain and Cedric Crain; special cousins, Chase Wilson and Skylarr Wilson; special playmates and friends, Lauryn Polite and Aniyah Childress.

Tristen was preceded in death by his aunt, Quwanda Michelle Lundy-Carter; and great-grandfather, Wheeler Crain.

The family would like to express special thanks to Rev. Archie Powell Jr. and the First Union Baptist Church family, Bishop L. Earl Stewart and the Detroit Street Church of God family. Sincere thank to the doctors and nurses at the Hurley Pediatric ICU on behalf of myself and my family, especially myself, I could not have spent the worst week of my life with a better group of people, especially Dr. Nolen, even though you scared me all week. LOL.

To his teacher, thank you for giving our little one big dreams and being able to see past his stubborn ways and see the fun loving bubbly boy he was.
