Troy Anthony Levelro Coleman, beloved father, son, brother, uncle, family member, and friend, passed away leaving behind a legacy of loyalty, kindness, and a spirit that brightened the lives of all who knew him. Born and raised in Flint, Michigan, Troy was a proud graduate of Hamady High School. He went on to attend Ferris State University, continuing to shape his future with determination and ambition.

Throughout his life, Troy maintained steady and committed employment, a reflection of his strong work ethic and dedication. But beyond his professional life, he was known for his fun-loving personality and the contagious joy he brought to every moment.

Troy fully embraced the things he loved. He enjoyed gaming, fishing, watching the news, reading, and solving crossword puzzles. He was a passionate sports fan—rooting faithfully, and sometimes loudly, for the Detroit Lions and Detroit Pistons. Creative at heart, he loved both making things and listening deeply, whether through stories, conversations, or shared experiences.

Those who knew Troy will remember his loyalty, his easygoing nature, and the simple philosophy he lived by: "Shake a hand, make a friend." And he lived it well—making friends wherever he went, offering warmth freely, and leaving lasting impressions through genuine connection.

Troy's memory will carry on in the hearts of all who loved him, strengthened by the joy, laughter, and friendship he shared throughout his life. Left to cherish his memory are his daughter Joi, grandson Noah, sisters Katrina and Sparkle, brother Christopher, and niece Madisyn.

“ Wow!!! Bubba, I'm shook!! I just asked Trina about you in the recent days when we talked and she simply said “Bubba is still Bubba “ and I kinda laughed because I remember how much of a character you were and how any time I saw you, you'd say something to make me laugh. To Trina, Joy and the rest of the family, you have my sincere condolences 🌸 and I pray that you're blessed with God's healing grace at this time and in the near future, especially when things get silent and your healing is still happening, take solace in the many special memories shared with him. 🙏🙏🙏🙏
