“ My condolences to Yolanda, Christopher and family. I have fond memories of Ms. Trudy growing up. She was a woman who knew what she wanted and how she likes things. She and her husband Carl making their own furniture together was amazing to me. It seemed they did everything together. Ms. Trudy introduced my Mom and I to designer clothes shopping and getting great deals. She made me and Yolanda dresses alike and I bought a plaid fabric. It made extra work for her, but she made sure the plaid matched in the seams. Ms. Trudy had an eye for detail and that has stuck with me. A quip also stuck and that was “loose lips, sinks ships”. Thank you for these little, big things Ms. Trudy. Rest In Peace with Mr. Carl.
Love, Carla
