“ Tyiesha... You weren't in me and Ashton's life very long, but the little time that you were, you left footprints on our hearts. We will never forget all of the wonderful things that you have done for us. Its crazy, how no matter what the situation was you were there to protect us and not let anyone come for us!! That means alot to me that you had so much courage, courage that I probably didn't even have at that time. You had a heart of gold and would do anything in your power for anyone. I can see you now coming across the street smiling, all happy and jolly from Melanee's house asking me, "Ms Ashley, when are you going to cook me some more fish?" We will remember all the times that you included Ashton into whatever you were doing for Julian and Abby. He always talked about what a great time that you guys had and that you were fun.

You may be gone in the flesh, but your memories and the way that you made people feel will always be alive. You were such a warm, bubbly person to be around. Until we meet again, fly high my friend!!!!

We love you,

Ashley and Ashton
