“ *To the Family of Tyrone "Tywinski" Smith,
We called Tyrone by this nickname while he attended EMU and we attended U of M. We had such fond memories and good times during our college years. As a person, you could have never found such a funny and loyal person. His acting became second nature to breathing. As a Christian, he was an excellent example. We, the Emeralds of Phi Eta Psi, knew that he would be the perfect gentleman wherever we saw him. God makes no mistakes and Tyrone was "one in a million". Death where is your sting, victory where is your grave. To God be the Glory!*

*Yours fraternally,
Douglas and Cheryl Gibbs

“ Dear Smith Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)
