“ The Lord truly got a Real Good Man when he called home, Rev Ulice Leatherberry. The man was just like family to both myself and all of my family When Brother Ulice gave his life to God. I was so proud of him. Ulice taught me how to ride a motorcycle. He had a very fast Honda 400. We all will really miss him, because I live so far away I usually only talk to him once a month or on holidays. Rest Brother Ulice, We All Loved You but God Needed You More.

Dear Lord Have Mercy On Brother Ulice And Render to Him the mercy that you render to all of us sinners and take his hand and show him the way home

Amen

“ Knowing you since I was a very young child, growing up in Second Friendship Missionary Baptist Church. Our families and friends gatherings throughout the years will never be forgotten. Hug my grandma and momma for me Ulice. Continue to sleep in heavenly peace. You certainly are loved and will be sorely missed.
