“ Hello to the family. I have been a friend of the family for years now, and I watched her grow up. Kesha was my friend and I have not talked to her in years, but your family was always nice and welcomed everyone into their family. I will keep you in my prayers and you God in your life and just continue to pray.

“ I know that this is a very difficult time for your family. I will keep you lifted up in prayer. Just know that He will give the much needed comfort and guidance in this whole ordeal. You have have two beautiful reflections of Skyy in those two precious girls. May God continue to bless and keep your family and continue to be a light in the darkness.

“ Precious Sister...this is a very sad endeavor. It's so hard to accept this unexpected tragedy, but while we grieve, God is relieved. My prayers will remain in the hearts of your daughters. They will always be in good hands knowing you and God are watching over them.

I wish I could've seen you in your young adult years...

Love you,

Chan

“ Skyy...I dont even know what to say, im still shook by the news, I CAN'T believe your gone. You were way too young but they say we cant question God and I know your in a better place but that doesnt make this any easier!!! I promise you that your memory will live on in your children, I love you cuz and you will truly be missed!!!
