This is Tyrone McHenry I just want to start off by saying Utesha... Was not only a friend of the households I grew up in she was also a forgiving friendly humble individual! She was very very forgiving that's what I really loved about her and she took people in and housed them until they got well and good on their feet or was confident enough to stand on their own. she was there for not only me but a lot of other kids coming up in the '90s whose parents fosters and biologicals had abandoned them she was a good person. May her soul rest in peace and in heaven
