“ It was a Glorious day, when God sent three special angels down to bring you your wings. To escort you to your new home above, to do heavenly things. There were many times you were away, But you never forgot to return to share family Love & values with your siblings. All Our hearts are heavy right now, but as we laugh & talk about our memories, and good times we had, showing nothing but family Love, we find comfort to know that you have no more pain, or stress from not being able to walk or talk. Now fly on and do all the things you loved doing .soar high with all the angels ,our sweet sister, and keep close in your heart, our family Love we had for each other. As we will always have you here in our hearts for eternity. Until we are together again, Rest With Love, In Heavenly Peace . YOUR SISTERS & BROTHERS.
