“ To the McCain family: I have fond memories of Mrs. McCain at Christ the King. She was a remarkable lady and always provided a nice smile. Her spirit was awesome. It meant a lot to me when she sang in the choir at my Mom's funeral despite her health challenges. I will uplift the family n my prayers.

We all grew up together and momma didn't let us get away with too much. Life seems to throw you for a loop and I could just kick myself for not going to see her when I was there. She is now with pops and my parents. The Jefferson crew was always a tight bunch of people. Rest in love momma, rest in love. You guys know how to get in touch with me anytime. I love you all.*
