“ This is heart breaking to hear of Velma's passing. Lynn Lynn, Helen, June, Cakie, Tracie, Yummy, Wanda, Bobbie and Family We go back a long way back in St John Area. I even baby sit for her sometimes. We had so much fun together. I will truly miss that big smile she always had when I would see her at Meijer's or when she came to get her taxes done. Girls take care of each other especially Cakie. sending my love and prayers.

“ My dear Aunt Velma, what can I say, but you are going to be missed. I think about all the summers I spent at your house and not wanting to go home because I was having so much fun. Time has moved so quickly we are all grown up with kids and grandkids of our own now... realizing that we will all meet in the place where you are now , In God's house, with Reese, Man, Momma, Daddy, Uncle Melvin and Juno. We know physically you are no longer here, but your spirit is rest in peace. We Love you

“ My aunt Velma, where did the time go? It seem like yesterday I was spending the summers at your house and never wanting to leave, because I had so much fun there, I loved spending time with Reese, Lynn Lynn, Helen, June and Cakie. Now that we are all grown up we are leaving from here to soon it seems that way. You are going to be missed by your entire family because we all loved you so much, I had not had the time to spend with you like I should had. God wants you home with him now so rest in peace and your spirit will always be with us. Love you auntie.
