Vera Jean Bailey Burkett, age 84, of Flint, passed away peacefully on February 26, 2026, at Lahser Hills Care Center in Southfield, Michigan.

Vera Jean Bailey Burkett was born on May 2, 1941, in Grady, Arkansas to the late James and Lois Bailey. As a teenager, she accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at St Paul Missionary Baptist Church. Vera began her educational journey in Grady, AR. During her middle school years, her family moved to Flint, Michigan, where she attended Flint Public Schools. After raising her children, Vera returned to school and earned an associate degree from Jordan College. After high school, Vera married her high school sweetheart, Arthur McGee, and three children were born from this union: Gwendolyn, Arthur Jr., and Tammy.

Vera also assisted in raising her oldest granddaughter, Veronica Pitts. She also assisted Leonard in raising Shayquan, their granddaughter. Vera married Leonard Burkett in 1991, and much of their life together was centered around traveling and enjoying one another's company. She began her career at Hurley Medical Center and later continued her service at New Paths, Inc. as a Residential Counselor, where she faithfully worked in rehabilitation services.

Vera was well known for her culinary skills-especially her famous greens-and for her lively personality. She never met a stranger and brought warmth and joy wherever she went.

Vera was preceded in death by both parents, James and Lois Bailey, brother James (Sonny) Bailey, sister Maxine Lewis, daughter Gwendolyn McGee-Smith, and husband Leonard Burkett.

Vera Jean Bailey Burkett leaves to cherish her memory: children, Arthur Jr. (Melody) and Tammy McGee Scott (Eric); grandchildren, Veronica Pitts, Stephanie Carpenter (Brent), Brijetta Smith, and Eric Jaylen Scott (Brianna); great-grandchildren, Josiah, Harmony, Gwendolyn, and Scarlett. She is also survived by her nephews, Kevin, Andre, and Shawn Lewis; the Relerford family, Leonetta, Raymond, Anthony, and the entire Burkett Family.

Vera's life was a testament to faith, perseverance, love and devotion to family. She has indeed fought the good fight, finished her race, and kept the faith.
