Mrs. Verbalene (Carr) Jackson was born July 2nd, 1939 in Little Rock, Arkansas. The second eldest child of John L. and Rebecca Carr. Verbalene was baptized at an early age and grew up under the guidance and support of her loving parents. In the 1950s, her parents moved the family to Flint, Michigan seeking increased equality and opportunity to help support and safely raise their children. Verbalene graduated from high school in 1957. She was a longtime employee of AC Delco, a division of General Motors Corporation and was a member of UAW Local # 651 retiring in 1986. As the Matriarch of her family, she worked hard to raise her son, Darryl, and, eventually, her grandson, Derrell. Instilling in them the same values, beliefs and strength that made her the endearing mother, wife, and grandmother that she was.

Ever authentic and true to her beliefs and values; Verbalene was a strong-willed, charismatic woman. Whenever she entered a room her energy, smile and gift of gab uplifted those around her. She had an innate ability to instantly transform even the most difficult, somber moments into erupting laughter with her unique sense of humor and outlook on life. With the quick, razor sharp wit of a natural born comedian - she was never at a loss for words. And she never mixed, or sugar-coated those words either. She told it like it was - through and through - and said what she felt you needed to hear. This quality of authenticity and her unconditional love made Verb the rock of the family. The person others turned to for real, unbiased advice and genuine love in their time of need. For Verb, family and close friends were everything and she always placed the needs of others before her own. That was just her nature - compassionate, courteous, and benevolent.

Verbalene always had a love for fashion and a classy sense of style with a touch of flair. She enjoyed shopping, traveling, casinos and most of all spending time with those she loved and cared for. She was a former member of New Zion Baptist Church under leadership of Dr. Terry.

Verbalene is loved dearly and her memory will be eternally cherished by: grandsons, Derrell (Jasmin) Page of Long Beach, CA and Victor Ferguson of Grand Blanc, MI; granddaughter, Breanna Stewart of Grand Blanc, MI; stepsons, Horace "Boon" Jackson and Grady Elneron, both of Flint; sisters-in-law, Alvita Jackson and Mildred Jackson, all of Flint; a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends including special friends, Liz Neeley, Rosa Ryans and Alberta Lee; special daughters, Theresa Page, Bertha Moses and Gloria Moses Colen, all of Flint.

Verbalene was preceded in death by her husband, Horace Jackson; son, Darryl Jackson; parents, John L. and Rebecca Carr; siblings, John E. "Man" Carr, Linda Carr and Callie Mae Poplar; nieces, Brenda "Joyce" Poplar-Swift and Twania "Na Na" Poplar; and nephew, Delano Poplar.

The family wishes to express special thanks to McLaren-Flint 9th and 12th Floor staff, Willowbrook Manor staff, Heritage Manor staff, Absolute Hospice Care staff and Dr. Abdel Halim. Alongside great love and appreciation for the special help and attention from family members including, Theresa Page, Bertha Moses, Gloria Moses Colen, Theresa Allen, Varnell Poplar, Tammy Jackson, Devon Carver and Donald & Cynthia Renfro.
