“ I have always had a wonderful time with cousin Myrtis. Whenever we were together she never failed to mention how much like my Grandfather I was. We just had the best time at our family reunion in MS. That was a real road trip with her. All through Mississippi and Alabama she never failed to mention how much fun she was having. I was glad that she got to have long late night conversations with cousins that she grew up with. It was special for all of them and she will be honered at the next reunion.
