“ Granny, you were always someone special to me. For years you went to a many quartet musical and never realize until about 10 years ago that I would be allowed to call you something so personal as such!... You treated me kind always never ever changing. I'll will never forget you! Your smile lit up the room. In my book you're a true Shero! Never ever giving up or giving in. You fought the good fight of faith. No more pain or discomfort. Rest easy now Granny...I love you! ❤️

“ Granny I am certainly going to miss that beautiful smile all the hugs and kissess and all of the countless words of encouragement. A few years ago I had to have surgery and I was afraid. Granny said what you scared of? You believe God is going to take care of you right? Well put your big girl panties on you are going to be fine. Well Granny you were right but Im afraid Im going to need to put my big girl panties on again I wasn't ready for this.
