“ Dear Family, I am deeply sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. The loss of someone we love brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the Bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28,29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:4. And as you turn to God through your tears and sorrow, please bear in mind that "He is the healer of the brokenhearted" (Psalms 147:3).

“ To the Taylor-Coleman Families. I am deeply saddened by the loss of Del. I considered her as one of my sisters, and she treated me as such. She was very dear to my family. A very outgoing person. WHENEVER u called her and she was needed, she was there. No questions asked, whether good or bad, right or wrong. A personality like none other, except for one other person I know (Lesa). Can't nobody roll their eyes or head like them. LOL. Her presence in our lives will truly be missed, and memories will be cherished.

“ Dear Coleman Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

Dell was Lisa Fordham's left hand, and she will be sorely missed by everyone that knew her and loved her. I could walk into a place and know Dell by her blonde hair, and you know everybody can't rock that blonde the way she did. I love her in death as I have done in life. We should always remember that God's word says "To be absent from the body, to be present with the Lord." We love and will miss you Dell from Doreatha D.
