He moved, at the age of two, with his family, to Flint, Michigan. Victor graduated from Flint Public Schools and later became a licensed Automotive Mechanic. Cars were not his only forte; he was a jack of all trades and a Survivalist. If one were ever stranded, you would call Victor. He would take care of you, protect you, keep you safe and secure. Victor could construct anything or destruct. He was a bull in a china shop, known for ALWAYS breaking something. His favorite word was "Oops." Also, Victor was an avid cyclist. Mr. Ivy enjoyed learning about Jehovah and having bible studies. There was never a dull moment with Victor around. Nothing he would not do for us, his family. We loved him; he loved us. Victor was never "Heavy." He was our brother and will be missed terribly.
