Flint Community Schools is where Vincent received his diploma and cultivated lasting friendships that extended into adulthood. In the spirit of honorary mention, he was never afraid to color outside the lines and probably learned more outside the classroom than in it; he was a student of life. Mr. Nelson's classmates remember him as being easygoing, loyal, comfortable in any social setting, charming and a great conversationalist; he easily impacted the lives of those he interacted with.

Vincent is deeply missed by his fiancée, Christalyn Madison, the love of his life who was a constant source of love and support. They travelled, laughed a lot and raised their family together. He and Christalyn consciously worked to make each moment enjoyable and memorable.

With family and friends from coast to coast, Vincent knew everyone! Distance didn't keep him from visiting or calling to check in. He especially looked forward to spending time with his son, bonus daughter and grandchildren. He held a high esteem for his family and loved them dearly, especially, his mother who meant the world to him.

Vincent worked as a Forklift Driver at Kumho Tire in Macon, Georgia, where he was no stranger to hard work. His co-workers expressed he was an invaluable part of their team, always helpful, and they appreciated his enthusiasm and contagious personality.

Vincent had a sweet tooth and was a food connoisseur. He enjoyed traveling, spending time with loved ones, and any time he headed out to the docks to go fishing, was a perfect day. However, his number one thing to do was play poker! He never said he was good at it, but he loved it! He also had dreams of purchasing a blue, fully loaded Maserati with a personalized plate titled, ALL IN, which further displays his admiration for poker. Now, he's driving his stunning Maserati in Heaven.

Vincent leaves to cherish his memory; Parents, Gloria and Jewel Brown, of Flint, MI; Son, Vincent D'Andre (Breanna) McClinton, of Columbus, OH; Sister, Sena (Keith) Bell Sr., of Flint, MI; Fiancée, Christalyn Madison, of Macon, GA; Bonus Daughter, Nakia Kindall, of Pleasant Grove, AL; 9 Grandchildren, Vincent D'Andre McClinton Jr., D'Mir McClinton, of Flint, MI, D'Shawn McClinton, D'Cari McClinton, D'Mari McClinton, Alanna Pouncil, Rodrick Campbell Jr. of Columbus, OH, Ki'yah Kindall, Paidyn Hobson, of Pleasant Grove, AL; 5 Aunts, Abby Singleton, of Dallas, TX, Fay (James) Wallace, of Flushing, MI, Sheila (John) Wells, Joyce Nelson, of Flint, MI, Anna Nelson of Pontiac, MI; 5 Uncles, Eddie (Dorothy) Nelson, of Madison, WI, Andrew
