“ Dear Aunt Virgie
We are hurt that you left us so soon
Day and night we are ALL confused
They say time heal all wounds
But, I can't see it AUNTIE you left us so soon....
You left behind five beautiful children with lots of love
When they look up to heaven they will see you as a morning dove
Yes we are all here mourning your loss
God wanted you more and HE WON the toss
He makes no mistakes so we must try to understand
That it was God's time, not man.
Each day will get harder shedding tear after tear
Wishing we had more time, just one more year
You left behind a great legacy
Of how to be faithful and strong
I know auntie, we have to hold on
Your legacy will never be forgotten
Your kids and grandkids will miss you, you spoiled them rotten
Your nieces and nephews loved you too
Don't worry about your siblings God will see them through
All they have to think about are the precious memories they shared with you.
WE LOVE AND MISS YOU AUNT VIRGIE

“ My heart grieves for the loss of your mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, cousin and my adopted big sister.

Virgie even though I haven't seen you in over 25+ years because I moved out of state, I can still hear that big raspy laugh you had and I can see that beautiful smile.

I remember how I looked up to you as a little girl and you even trusted me to babysit your first born, Teresa. Those were the days on Selby Street that I will always cherish.

I must admit I am a fb junkie and I love seeing pictures of friends and their families. For anyone that is out-of-state and is a fb friend of any of Virgie's family members you cannot help but walk away with the conclusion of how blessed and loved Virgie was. Family is a beautiful thing created by God and Virgie you are going to be greatly missed.

To the Family and friends of Virgie Mae, just remember that God will see you through so just keep the faith. To my special close friend Willie Lee, thank you for sharing your sister with me.

“ I was saddened to hear of the transition of life of this beautiful spirit I've known and loved my entire life. I know that she is in a better place and now has infinite peace:) I have many fond memories of growing up with her kids, especially her eldest (Teresa Young).... we were inseparable. I used to love to go over there and we would play dress up and I was the only one with feet big enough to wear her shoes. (Smile) I know there are not enough condolences or words of comfort that could ever take away the pain the family and friends of this sweet and loving mom, grandmother, aunt, sister, friend etc.....are feeling right now but know she will be forever loved and surely missed. My heartfelt thoughts are with the family, May God bless and keep you:)

“ *Dear Young Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.*
