“ At a time like this, I am at a loss for words,i'm expressing my condolence to you and your family who has lost a loved one. To say it to bring comfort, To say that we care, and to say that we understand, is something that I can only imagine. However, It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter, and although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of those little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles of Virgil back again. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steal, and someone so special can never be forgotten. Virgil friendship with my daughter was sincere. We have you in our prayers,

“ To the family of Virgil Alexander, and to each other who is reading! I extend my deepest gratitudes to the family. For in seasons such as these, who know not where to turn? But in all truth and understanding the Lord, thy God waits to hear our cry! He knows our every struggle, and he knows our every being. Its, God who can bring us through every reasons!

I hurt to write this, and It bothers me to know this, that my friend, my brother... Have died, and has taken another resting place. But, the good thing...I know GOD doesn't make mistakes! He knows what's best for us, inspite, what we don't see ahead. I know its hard, and may seem tough at this time...But, April... you and your family continue to stay strong! Don't you give in, and don't you give up! This is just one of the many fights of life, that I know God will see us all through.

My bible teaches me, that in times like these, I need a savior! And, anyone who doesn't I dare you today to get to know Christ Jesus! Try him for yourself. You'll find him to be a friend, when there's no one around. You'll find him to be a comforter, and redemmer when things begin to get hard. He's a way maker!

Continue to stay uplifted in your time of bereavement. God Bless,

Kevin Johnson and the Northwestern Academy Family!

John 14:1-7

Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. 3And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. 4You know the way to the place where I am going." 5Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" 6Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. 7If you really knew me, you would know[b] my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him."

“ I just wanted to send my respects and prayers to Virgil's family. When my baby sister called me to tell me that her friend was a victim of violence and had lost his life, I could hear it in her voice that he was a special guy. My sister told me about a time that she lost her keys at school and Virgil was the only person that stayed to help her find them. She said he looked everywhere with her like they were his own keys. That is how I know he was a good person, with an honest soul. On behalf of my sister and our family, I would like to say thanks to Virgil for being a real friend to my Baby sister.

“ To: April, Mike, Uncle Virgil, Aunt Mary and the entire Alexander Family,

I am truly sorry for the loss of my cousin, your son, and grandson. It hurts my heart that such a tender, loving, and caring family have had to experience the pain of losing a love one to senseless violence. I know that nothing I say or do can ease your grief, however I do know the Lord can and will be a comforter to the brokenhearted.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in our tribulation..."(2 Cor. 1:3-4)

April and Uncle Virgil, you raised a lively, energetic young man with an infectious personality. I will always remember his dance routine that he performed at his open house:-) Honor his memory by being proud of the love, strength and confidence that you gave, which allowed him to express himself freely everyday of his life.

“ Ms. Alexander, my heart truly goes out to you and your family during the tragic and untimely loss of your child. Ms. Alexander, we often talked about our children. I always enjoyed our talks about your son and my boys, and it simply breaks my heart to know that a good child was taken away from you in such a way. My prayers will always be with you and yours. Please stay vigilantly prayerful, and remember that God loves you and Virgil. Your child is in eternal peace with Him now. Please take care and if and when you are ready to talk, I am in the 300/office at NWA. Barb Brown

“ April, I know that a number of people have told you to look to GOD; to put your trust in JESUS, and that this terrible hurt in your heart will be helped, well it may not seem to be true, but it most certainly is THE TRUTH. Something like this can only be handled by your trusting it all to the hands of THE LORD. GOD LOVES YOU APRIL, and HE LOVES "STORM" too. Trust HIM, HE can be counted on to do just what you need at any time. My prayers are with you darling; I LOVE YOU.

“ Exactly what can you not say about Virgil Alexander. He was a dancer, an artist, band member, comedian, and all around cultured young man. Even though I only knew Virgil for one school year, those ten months were very significant in my life. During band season alot of members including Virgil, gave me a hard time since I was a crab(neww member). But, Virgil surpassed the sterotypes of crabs, and we were cool. He was the heart and soul of the band. Whenever he was around he brought a joyous spirit like no other. I can't believe he is gone simply because I held a conversation with him not too long ago. But, God is a mysterious God, and can take the people you truly care about. Keeping in mind that God's intentions are good, and that things happen for a reason, we must continue to have faith. Virgil has pased away, but he's still alive in our hearts, dancing, marching, and playing music in our ears to remind us of his existence. Trust me, Virgil will never be forgotten. April, I have never met you, but I want to let you know that you have raised a very handsome and passionate young man and to continue staying strong. We will always love you, just as we will always love your son.
