“ Our hearts continue to be broken at the loss of this wonderful sister that we have learned to love with all of our hearts. We know she is with her Savior and will take comfort in that but we will certainly miss her and her wonderful smiles and her prayers and hugs. She and Walter were like family to us. We can't imagine a world without her in it. Love John and Margaret

“ We are brokenhearted with the passing of Vivian. She always had a word of encouragement, a genuine smile, and an authentic heart of kindness. Her devout love of God and people will not soon be forgotten. The thought of heaven is getting sweeter all the time. With love and continued prayers for Walter and family, Dave and Sue Frownfelter
