“ Almost a year my longtime friend. I have looked at your name some many times in my phone and just cried. It was so painful to not get a birthday call and we talk about me sharing a birthday with Quin. I miss you and no one could remember events like you and I wish you was here my friend. Just missing you on this day my longtime friend and thank you for teaching me how to ride a bike.

“ There are so many things I could say about Vivian. Growing up with her on Alma St. from 1st. grade until almost adulthood, I'd come to know her well. She was a unique individual, with a bubbly demeanor. To Beverly, Lisa, and John Jr., I have not lost a sibling yet, but I do know this has to be another hard pill to swallow. I pray that your teary eyes dry, your dark days lighten, and your heavy hearts begin to heal. Your Alma St. friend Vicki Reaves
