Mr. Owens was Honorably Discharged from the United States Army and the United States Air Force.

Walter E. Owens, 83, or more affectionately known as Ray, Mr. Walter, Granddaddy Ray and Pa, fell asleep in death in his hometown of Flint, Michigan on October 7, 2021.

Walter was a loving husband of his wife of 43 years, Veronica Owens of Flint, Michigan. Ray was a caring father of his "girls", Belinda Pirtle, Brenda Rembert, Sharon Owens, Harriet Green and Cynthia Owens. Mr. Walter was a cherished stepfather of Rosemarie Roudette, Diana Charles, Stephanie Charles and Francis Charles. He was Granddaddy Ray or Pa as the respected grandfather of Shawn Powell, KiJuana Owens, LaJuan Rembert, NaKeshia Philippe, Shanelle Robinson, Courtney Rembert, Natasha Roudette, Nadia Roudette, Brent Crews, Ruth Owoseni and a host of great-grands.

Even though being born in Flint to Fred Dorn and Mattie Lee Francis, Walter grew up on the streets of New York. You may not have envisioned a young man like him playing the violin, but he was amongst those offered a scholarship to the Juilliard School of the Arts! After graduating high school, he entered the military and served in the Army and Air Force Reserve. Eventually, he departed from New York City and moved his family to his mom's hometown of Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Lastly, he returned to Flint where he worked and retired from the United States Post Office.

Everyone knew that his favorite pastime was sports. Walter was a people person, and anyone who met him loved him. When he laid that captivating smile on you, you just had to smile back.

“ To : My wonderful friend, Belinda, and the entire Owens family:
So very sorry to hear of your lost. The good news is that we know he has gone to a place of incessant peace after having the rewarding experience of being a dad to such lovely ladies and a granddad as well. Now he has gone to his just reward. The comfort factor is in knowing that you will see him again w/o grief, or worries or misunderstandings to cloud your companionship.
Joy cometh in the morning. The tears , frustrations, disappointments of this world are left behind. He awaits you all in a better place.

“ To the Owens family,
It is our prayer that God will comfort you and your family during this sad time. Walter and I were co-worker for the United State Postal Office. Walter was a friend to all who knew him .He always had a smile. He talked about his family all the time, the one in Michigan and New York. Wishing you Loving memories to forever hold in your heart and comfort for you for the days ahead.
Rejoice always. Pray continually, give thanks in all circumstance, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus. ! Thessalonians 5:16-18
