Mr. Warren branch "The Road Runner" was born June 29, 1952 in Chicago, Illinois the son of James Sr. and Mable Branch. He was an identical twin with Wayne Branch. Warren graduated in Chicago from George Washington Caver High School. He relocated with his family to Flint, MI and remained there most of his adult life. Warren married his childhood high school sweet heart Edna Hudson-Branch. He was an avid bible reader. He enjoyed reading his bible and talking to other about the word of God. Warren enjoyed hanging out at Clio Road's McDonalds and the Doughnut shop just to talk and debate about the latest political news and issues with friends. He enjoyed running and riding his bike across town and stopping to meet, visit and speak with people along the way. Warren enjoyed playing basketball and just about every other sport that exist, he was very athletic and staying in shape was very important to him and could out run anyone. Most of all, Warren enjoyed spending time listening to all his children. He was a proud and caring husband, brother, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle, family man and friend.

Mr. Warren Branch leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Edna Hudson-Branch; 6 children, Leonard Hudson, Edna Hudson, Warren Jr. (Connie) Branch, Wanda Hudson, Andrea (Edwin) Jones, Charlotte (Anthony) White; 17 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren; 5 brothers, James "Jimmy", Gregory (Adire), Wayne, Robert "Baby Boy" and Eric Branch; a host of other relatives and friends.

Mr. Warren was preceded in death by his parents, James Sr. and Mabel Branch; brother, Christopher Branch.

Dad I Celebrate your Life

The joy you brought me is the same peace you feel now. I celebrate your life. Thank you for being the best and only Dad for me. Love you Dad! Always did and always will!

I am feeling blessed

Your Loving daughter, Edna Hudson
