“ To the Cochran Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life that leads to death.

However, have you asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

“ Mary we are praying for you, and the rest of the family doing this most difficult time, and forever more. I know that your heart is broken, and I'm praying that God will give you, strength, comfort, and a peace of mind. Cochran was such a kind, loving, and caring person, and will be truly missed. He fought a good fight, and you were there for him every step of the way, and he let you know how much he loved, and appreciated you. I know that it's going to be hard, but treasure the memories that you have of him, and keep your trust, and faith in the and He will bring you through. You and Cochran have an Undying Love,. Therefore, he will live in your heart forever. Always remember that I am here for you anytime of the day or night. I love you, and God Bless!!!! 🙏🙏🙏💕

My dear beautiful sister friend Mary, I have no words that can take away the pain you feeling now. I do know this that God is with you, he will protect you, he will provide her you, you are never alone because he is always with you and will never ever leave you. I am praying your strength in the Lord. He will comfort you as no one can. Stay strong I am praying for you and your entire family and the Cochran family. You were there keep those treasured memories in your heart. I love my sister and prayer partner.
