“ Even though Wilbert and I have not seen each other much since high school, Whenever we did see each other, it was with the same friendship that we developed when we first meeting in the 6th grade. That friendship we developed early in life never faded. I always did and always will consider Wilbert Jackson as one of my Best Friends.

To the entire Jackson family, my prayer is that God will continue to Bless and keep you all though this most difficult period of life.
