“ Will or Dywan as I called him was my childhood friend from Broad Court. We were in band and car pooled to school together. You were always
So calm and cool. I remember you taught me how to slow dance at one of Tammy's house parties. That was over 33 years ago!!!
You will be deeply missed friend.
Rest in Peace

“ Will Dywan...Old Słów Poke! LOL We had many many great times growing up on Broad Ct. My very first memory of you is when your mom brought all of us from Broad Ct. to your birthday at your old house by the Windmill Place because yall hadn't completely moved into your house on Broad Ct. yet! And from there we became friends/family. There are sooooo many memories from getting wet in the sprinklers, your Michael Jackson jacket (LOL) to the court fish fries, the dance battles and I knooooow I used to get on your nerves messing with all your "friends" whenever you had company...here I come across the grass next door LOL Rest up, rest well...

My guy Chill Will..as we used to call you in 'Skegee!. Man we used to kick it hard on the yard. From day one when I came down to visit the campus in like 1995 with Dolla Bill..we got cool. They always said Real recognize Real fam. All the good memories making moves in Alabama...off campus in the apts behind Conoco. The games under THE SHED..the parties...And we cannot forget about the year you invited me to roll with you to Flint for Spring break because I couldn't get back to Connecticut. Man you and your fam treated me like family bro..I will never forget how your mom showed me so much love for the entire week...Made me feel at home.. That was real. The entire TUSKEGEE UNIVERSITY family will miss you broski!! Rock the Heavens til we can chop it up again my guy! 🙏
