“ If Willa said she lived a good life she did. Her desire was to see the world. She experienced the desires of so many of. She was firm in her beliefs, and stood firm with, wheather you liked them or not. She left a lasting impression on many. To the Family I pray that you know that she is at rest.

John 14:1

Do not let your hearts be trouble. You believe in God;believe also in me.

To the Daniels Family, You have my deepest sympathy in the lost of your love one. I will always remember Aunt Willa each time she came to visit her parents Mr./Ms Daniels in NC. Her parents were our neighbors for many years and she had a beautiful spirit. My Aunt Aletha, My Mother Sadie and Grandmother Sarah knew how special she was.

Randall and Tracey stay strong
