“ Mr. Blair was truly a good person... remembering how crystal, victoria and myself used to beg mr. blair to borrow the acura that we never got to drive.. he wasn't giving up those car keys..lol and those health class days at fswa..crystal, and myself used to laugh about how mr.blair used to rough up the guys who thought were going to come up in his class with no sense and not a care in the world..but he would immediately put them in their place with a straight face at all times.. you will be truly missed Mr. Blair.. love tynesha cross

“ To the Blair Family,

Mr. Blair was my favorite teacher at Southwestern Academy. He was so stern because he knew the potential children can have with the proper guidance. I remember he used to deduct points away from me because I constantly chewed gum to keep from being nervous for a test. I always respected him for running a proper class. We as the students may not have liked it at the time but he showed us what good structure was. I now take that same approach with my child. I personally want to thank the family for sharing a God given treasure with us (the students of Southwestern Academy). May God continue to bless and keep each one of you as you cope with such a loss.

“ Mr. Blair will truly be missed! He was by far one of the best teachers to come through FSWA. His most popular saying of "What is the capital of...." will never die. We love you Mr. Blair and you will never be forgotten.

“ Mr. Blair you were one of the coolest history teachers ever. You will truly remembered and never forgotten. You use to stress those capitals of the united states so much. I remember when you use to say GET YOUR THINGS AND GET OUT OF HERE! Or when you would tell us to get it together and we would be like I DIDN'T DO NOTHING and you would be like THATS THE POINT, DO SOME WORK! Those were the days. Sending my condolences out to the Blair Family. May God be with you!

“ My sincere condolences to the Blair family. He will be sadly missed as a great contributor to the St. James C.M.E. Church. The Male Chorus and the Steward Bd. has lost a fine man. A dedicated and hard worker for Our Lord was Bro. Bill. He's in good rest with God now. Bob
