“ Dennis and I connected when we were very young. We met on a bus, headed for a field trip in Detroit (sponsored by Father Dukette, I think). We both loved singing. We were singing silly kid songs when we met that first time. Dennis had a great voice. I just loved to sing. We became, "play brother and sister "that day and remained good friends throughout high school.. I was happy when he married my other childhood friend Jean. That kept us in each other's lives. The last time I saw Dennis was at our 50th high school class reunion. He had lost his voice and could no longer sing, so we lip synced our favorite Temptation songs together....That will remain another precious memory.

Deep, sincere condolences to Jean, Eva, Monica, Frenchy, the brothers (I only know the nicknames, but you know who I mean)....and the rest of the family... and to all of our mutual friends who feel this loss. Rest in peace dear one.

“ In high school, Dennis kept us in laughter, and I remember how he loved to dress "up". The last time I saw him was at someone else's funeral but he gave me that smile of his. Jean, Eva and the rest of the family, please accept my condolences on the loss of your beloved Dennis.

“ Dennis was hilarious he always had something to say that could make you laugh. Dennis loved to dresses, he was debonair young man, he also loved to sing. I remember when I was getting my hair done, Dennis would con down stairs singing, he had a beautiful tenor voice. Sending prayers and love to Jean, Keisha and the entire Durrett family and many friends. May God keep the you all in his loving arms. Love Curtis and Valerie Williams
