“ *Pauline and entire Pinnix family.
May you experience a measure of piece at this most difficult time.
You all know the “wonderfulness” of Dwight, and as one of my “forever friends,” I thank you from my heart for sharing your dear Dwight with us.
May knowing how much he was loved warm your heart.
I will continue to keep you close in my prayers.
Memories with him are ingrained in my heart.

“ Sending prayers and heartfelt condolences to my God Brother Dwight's entire family and many friends. Cherish all the beautiful memories you all shared. Dwight had a heart of Gold, and a Big Heart and a Beautiful Smile. When he would come to church with Pop Pinnix he would always come and give me a Big Hug and ask how I was going and the family. He Loved his Mt Olive family. He was an inspiration to alot of his coworkers and us at Mt. Olive. Rest on God Brother. For our earthly house has dissolved, but we have a building of God. A house not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens. Rest on in Jesus loving arms, God Bother until we meet again. Love you always and forever.

Your God Sister
Valerie (Anthony) Williams .
