

Mr. William G. Washington Sr.

March 20, 1931 - June 14, 2025

WASHINGTON, Mr. William G. Sr. - Age 94, passed away June 14, 2025, at his residence. Family hour 12:00 PM Tuesday, June 24, 2025, at Fairhaven Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1379 Louis Ave, Flint, MI 48505 with funeral service commencing at 1:00 PM Chaplain Seth Brownwell, officiating. Interment Cherry Valley Township Cemetery, 3712 Knight Street, Idlewild, MI. Mr. Washington will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home and may be viewed Monday, June 23, 2025, from 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM, with family present from 3:00 PM-6:00 PM to receive friends. William Gilbert Washington Sr. was born March 20, 1931 in Idlewild, Michigan to Alexander and Artelia Washington. William grew up in Idlewild, also known as the Black Eden, where prominent members of the Black community began vacationing. Idlewild was a thriving beach town amidst the forest of Northern Michigan that offered a safe haven during the Jim Crow era that denied Blacks rights and equality. During those years William developed a strong work ethic from his father and the foundation of his spirituality from his mother. A female Holy Nazarene Pastor from Chicago began having house meetings for the year-round residents which Mother Washington and her children would attend. These meetings were held on the Saturday Sabbath and led to William's subsequent baptism into the Seventh-day Adventist church and his love for Sabbath rest. William attended elementary school in Reed City, Michigan and high school at Adelpian Academy in Holly, Michigan. His high school studies were completed however when on active duty in the U.S. Marine Corp. After his discharge from active duty in the Marines he attended automotive classes at General Motors Technical Institute. But definitely held on to the identity of "Once a Marine always a Marine." His work experience includes roofing and construction, snowplowing, railroad, Boeing airplane mechanic, surveying, photographer for Flint Observer and 30+ years with General Motors. He is best known throughout Michigan and Northern Ohio for his hobbies of roller skating, photography and riding a motorcycle (not a rice burner but a Harley). He had several alias titles: Wild Bill, The Picture Man but most knew him as just Mr. Bill. That is of course unless you grew up with him in Idlewild where he was called by his middle name Gilbert.

William loved his family and had good strong values which he taught to his children. His deeply held religious beliefs lead him to spend hours in his prayer room interceding for not only his bloodline but also for his church family. What shaped those prayers was his daily checking in with the family and his attendance at the weekly church prayer meeting. Something he called "Checking Traps." When asked on occasion what was his secret to long life he would reply Ph.D. And to the confused looks he would add "Pray Hard Daily." William Gilbert Washington Sr. leaves to cherish his memory: wife of 42 years Phyllis Whitley-Washington Mt. Morris, Michigan; children, Susan (Morris) Woods, Sylvia Anderson, both of Oceanside, California, Duane (Twill) Washington, Chester Washington, Darlene (Algin) Bonner, Sonya Washington, all of Flint, Michigan, Alphonso (Ame) Washington of Everett, Washington; Timothy (Princess) Washington of Burton, Michigan, Ivan Collins of Gypsum, Colorado, Derhun (Verona) Sanders of Dumfries, Virginia and Marcus (Shakira) Leonard of Glencoe, Alabama; step-son, Tyrone (Monica) Hicks of Ann Arbor, Michigan; 40 grandchildren; 47 great-grandchildren; 8 great-great-grandchildren; brother, Nathaniel Washington Sr. (Catherine) of Mt. Morris, Michigan; a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends including special Friends, Diane Rankins of Flint, Michigan, Mable D. Jenkins of Montrose, Michigan and Shirley Woods of Glencoe, Alabama. William was preceded in death by his first wife, Margaret Taylor; sons, William G Washington Jr. and Troy Hicks; grandsons, LaRouse Robinson, Desmond Ireland and Anthony Washington; parents, Alexander Washington and Artelia Washington; sisters, Irene Gayle, Pricilla Washington-Davis, Beverly Harper and Phyllis Washington; brothers, Arthur, Daniel, Jerry, Joseph and Cornelius Washington; daughter-in-law, Barbara Washington; son-in-law, Charles Anderson; granddaughter-in-law, Simone Knapp.

“ Our condolences and prayers to the family and all who know and loved Bill. He was a part of our lives for so, so very long, more than can be remembered. My mind goes back to those times at the skating rink, he'd be skating backwards, smiling and taking pictures of us, never did see any of those photos! The moments we didn't know he captured until he handed over the snapshot. Such a special, fun, and loving person, what a "Great Joy" and "Beautiful Blessing". He will remain near in heart and dearly missed until That Glorious Day of The Lord's Coming. Bette Green, Gina Norton and Angela Gomez “ Derhun Sanders... sharing something wrote up for Dad... love y'all!!!

Early last Saturday morning, our father — William “Mr. Bill” Washington Sr. — peacefully made his transition at the age of 94.

To the world, he was Mr. Bill. To us, he was Dad, Daddy or Pops. And one of the greatest blessings in our lives.

We were all able to be with him on Friday night. We sat together, listening as he shared his heart. None of us knew it would be our last time together — but it was a beautiful moment we’ll treasure forever.

This is the man we got our smiles from. Our work ethic. Our positive outlook.

We’re especially thankful to Mama Phyllis for taking care of him and being by his side.

Dad provided for us faithfully. He was steady. Present. Loving. We each have our own memories — phone calls, simple check-ins, and time spent together at the skating rink or out taking pictures. Ordinary moments with him were full of wisdom, humor, and love.

He was deeply rooted in faith. He loved God, his family, his church, and his community — and he showed that love through service, generosity, and consistency.

He also had his own way with words — the famous “Mr. Bill” sayings we all came to know and love.

He’d begin every call with:

“Peace be unto you.”

And we’d reply:

“Peace be multiplied.”

From “May the good Lord take a likin’ to you,” to “Keep the wheels on the road,” or “Take all you want, but eat all you take,” his voice carried wisdom that sticks with us to this day.

He often reminded us:

“If you take care of the body, the body will take care of you.”

He had a phrase for everything — and for everyone — but it wasn’t just what he said. It was how he lived. With faith. With resilience. With heart.

Even now, our hearts are full — not because he’s gone, but because we got to have him.

As the saying goes,

“Don’t cry because it’s over, smile because it happened.”

At the end of every call, Dad would say:

“10 4 and a copy...I’m dropping the hammer.”

And we’d always reply:

“Hammer down.”

So today, we say it one last time —

Hammer down, Dad... Hammer down.

*“Henceforth there is laid up for you a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give you at that day — and not to you only, but unto all them also that love His appearing.”
(2 Timothy 4:8)*

We love y’all!

We love you, Dad. Always.”

“ I’m reminded of the family reunion in Alabama. Uncle Bill shared the story of riding in the his RV from Michigan. Uncle Bill said when Aunt Phyllis was driving it was smooth. But he knew when they switched drivers because they bounced him down the hwy while he laid in bed. He said I know I can get on my lawnmower with all this bouncing and shaking 🤔🤔 “love that nephew” “ Hammer 🔨 down
